The Holy Spirit Came

ACTS 2

On a special day called Pentecost, Jesus’ followers were together in one place. Suddenly, a sound like wind came from heaven and filled the whole house where they were staying. The Holy Spirit came to the believers like fiery flames and rested on them. When that happened, the believers were able to speak in different languages.

Travelers from many nations were in Jerusalem. When they heard the sounds, a large crowd gathered. The men were amazed and confused. They asked, “How is it that we can understand them in our own languages? What does this mean?” Some of the people made fun of the disciples and thought they were drunk.

Peter spoke boldly to the crowd, “We are not drunk. Listen to these words! Jesus performed miracles from God. You crucified Him, but God has raised Him up! He is alive! We are witnesses and have seen Him. God poured out His Holy Spirit on us. That’s what you are seeing and hearing from us today. You can know for certain that Jesus, whom you crucified, is both Lord and Messiah!”

When the people heard this, they became upset and filled with guilt. They asked Peter and the disciples, “Brothers, what shall we do?” Peter answered, “Repent and turn to Jesus for the forgiveness of your sins.” Peter continued to speak to them, and the Holy Spirit helped them understand Peter’s words. Many people believed. About 3,000 people were added to the believers and formed the first church.

Those who believed in Jesus listened and learned all that the disciples taught. They met with other believers to eat together and to pray.
